Screenwriter Robert Towne on Chinatown | Movie review

I just stumbled across an interview with Towne from 2009, marking the 35th anniversary of Chinatown. Here, he comments on Chinatown going down in history as “the paradigm for the perfect screenplay”: Well, I don’t have to tell you that we weren’t trying to write a screenplay that was perfectly-structured.

Robert Towne on Chinatown - How To Write a Screenplay

The script by veteran screenwriter Robert Towne is the foundation of this excellent production. Intricate and filled with endless false leads and plot twists, Towne’s story of multi-layered corruption is riveting from beginning to end. The storyline is loosely based on real events: the ‘water wars’ of early 20th century Los Angeles ...
